June 3, 2004

Office of the General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Sirs:

I wish to request an advisory opinion from you that the Libertarian Party of Virginia qualifies as a state committee of the Libertarian Party.

In support of my request I have enclosed a copy of the current bylaws of the Libertarian Party of Virginia.

Some of the candidates for federal office that we have obtained ballot status for in Virginia are:

Harry Browne - President - 2000

Art Olivier - Vice President - 2000

Sharon Wood - 1st Congressional District, US House of Representatives - 2000

Ron Crickenberger - 8th Congressional District, US House of Representatives - 2000

Brian Brown - 10th Congressional District, US House of Representatives - 2000

Robert McBride - 11th Congressional District, US House of Representatives - 2000

Ron Crickenberger - 8th Congressional District, US House of Representatives - 2002

Please note that prior to 2002 all minor party congressional candidates in Virginia were identified on the ballot as independents. Unfortunately Ron Crickenberger was identified as an independent on the ballot in 2002 as well since we failed to file the required paperwork with the State Board of Elections to have him identified as a Libertarian.

I can provide the names of prior candidates for federal office that we have obtained ballot status for in Virginia if needed.

RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION

If you require any further information before you issue your advisory opinion please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Kevin McKenna', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Kevin McKenna
Treasurer

POLICY DOCUMENT 03.06.02

Outline of State Party Financial Structure

Revised 25 Jan 03

Throughout this Policy Document, the term "committee" except when stating a specific form of Committee shall be take to mean any Standing or Ad-Hoc committee, or an individual or group of individuals wishing to form a committee or perform the function of a committee.

Committees may obtain funding from the SCC in any of four standard ways. First, the committee may request an Annual Allocation from anticipated General Fund revenues. Second, to cover continuing operational expenses only, Standing Committees may request a Continuing Allocation. Third, a committee may identify a special need and request a Supplemental Allocation. Fourth, a committee may obtain authorization to conduct a Specified Fund-raiser at SCC expense for a specific project.

A committee may also, with SCC permission, conduct a Targeted Fund-raiser at its own expense.

The reason for each type of allocation and the process for securing it differs.

ANNUAL ALLOCATIONS:

Any committee that wishes to obtain an annual allocation shall submit a request at the appropriate time based on the annual guidance provided by the SCC. Annual allocations are transferred in-toto from the General Fund at the time of the allocation.

Annual Allocations typically cover anticipated non-operating expenses including purchases of specific block services (e.g. media buys) or capital goods, or anticipated operating expenses for which a relevant source of income cannot be found upon which to base a Continuing Allocation.

	Month/Day
Budgetary Planning Cycle
A. Develop Policy Statement (Vision, Strategy (Biennial Goals))	Q1
1. VSOT (If any)	Q2
2. Hearings	Q2
3. Drafting	Jul
4. Publish Guidelines to Committees
B. Committee Proposals	Q3
1. Receipts	Q3
2. Expenditures	Oct
C. Operational Budget Plan	Nov
D. Reclama	Dec
E. Final Budget Proposal

CONTINUING ALLOCATIONS:

Certain committees within the LPVA require continuous levels of funding for continuous operating expenses which are proportional to their continuing activities. For instance, provision of a newsletter costs a certain amount per issue per member. Therefore, a portion of the moneys obtained from membership dues should be set aside for the provision of the newsletter. Similarly, fund raising mailings (on average) cost a certain proportion of the moneys raised. Therefore, that proportion of the money raised by direct mail fund raisers should be set aside for further efforts.

Because Continuing Allocations are intended for operating expenses only, funds allocated to committees via this method may not be used for capital goods. If the Committee Chair believes there is sufficient funding in their budget based on Continuing Allocations, to cover the cost of a capital good without adversely impacting the operations of his committee, the chair may seek to have a portion thereof re-designated as a supplemental allocation.

Committees that receive Continuing Allocations shall submit a report justifying it's continuation during the "Committee Proposals" phase of the Annual Allocation Planning Cycle.

To obtain a new Continuing Allocation, the committee shall propose a re-division of receipts. The proposal shall specify the following information:

1. Pertinent facts supporting the need for a Continuing Allocation;
2. Which type(s) of income need to be redistributed and how;
3. An assessment of how the redistribution will effect other recipients of Continuing Allocations.

SUPPLEMENTAL ALLOCATIONS

To obtain a Supplemental Allocation, a committee may submit a motion containing a Plan of Action and Milestones (POA&M) describing the purpose of the allocation, anticipated expenditure date, it's effect on the reserves in the General Fund or other funds, it's exit criteria (i.e. what happens to the project resources remaining when and if the project meets, or fails to meet its POA&M), and any other supporting information that the committee deems helpful in convincing the SCC to allocate the funds.

SPECIFIED FUND-RAISING:

Upon approval by the SCC, a committee may work with the Fund-raising Committee to produce a specified fund-raiser. When the Financial Development Committee (FDC) believes that the proposed direct mail piece is satisfactory, or at least the best it can reasonably be, the piece will be produced and posted at the FDC's expense. The FDC shall receive a percentage of the receipts, as determined by the SCC each budget cycle, that provides an ability (on average) to recoup the costs. The remainder shall go to the project.

TARGETED FUND-RAISING

Upon approval by the SCC, a committee may use it's own funds to produce and post a targeted fund-raiser. The committee shall coordinate with the FDC to assure that mailings or other actions will not conflict in timing or content with ongoing FDC efforts.

If the committee uses LPVA resources such as post box, credit card merchant account, etc., the FDC shall receive a portion of the receipts for incidental expenses. If approved by the SCC, the committee may choose to conduct the fund-raiser without ANY LPVA resources and keep the entire receipt. Note that the pledge program is a form of targeted fund raising.

The following describes the primary type of Allocation each committee receives. For those receiving Continuing Allocations, see Exhibit 1 to this Policy Document.

1. Produce a campaign report for each election including the activities of campaigns, election returns and conclusions draw from that data.
2. Maintain a campaign management guide including reporting requirements (to campaign coordinator and progress reports from campaign coordinator), management principals (mission, objectives, tasks, goal integration), staffing (roles and responsibilities) and organization of resources.
3. Maintain the campaign history reference including the lessons learned from each campaign.

COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR

1. The Communications Director produces regular, timely press releases, and coordinates interviews of members of the party by the press.
2. The CD develops, coordinates, and supports a group of people who volunteer to write regular op-ed pieces and letters to the editor for various newspapers around the state.

3. The CD works with the Campaign Coordinator and local, state, and national campaign organizations to ensure effective media relations and the distribution of press releases to the media.
4. The CD will prepare and update a media list; the media list will include the addresses, fax and telephone numbers, and email addresses where available of all print, radio, and TV outlets in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

NEW INQUIRY LIAISON

THE BASICS: Write letters and make follow-up phone calls -- like 20 to 30 a week each -- to new inquiries around the state, asking them to join the Libertarian Party, and send each one targeted information that would be useful to them (such as the contact list for their local affiliates, etc).

Each new inquiry should receive the following things:

- 1) A letter (or email) welcoming them to the Libertarian Party, and letting them know what the Party resources are for them in their own area. Each letter must be customized by region. For instance, if their cityname is Alexandria, I want them to get a letter/email with the list of Party affiliates close to them, as well as the sign-up instructions for their local LP email mailing list. - Each letter/email should also include a membership form, and if mailed rather than emailed, an LPVA reply envelope.
- 2) Each inquiry name should be forwarded to the affiliate for that area for further, localized follow-up.
- 3) Each inquiry name should be tracked to make sure it makes it onto the main database. This is also the stage where duplicate entries can be found; so if a new name is a duplicate, notice of the error must be sent to the List Manager.
- 4) If possible, inquiries should also be called. It is much preferable to see to it that someone LOCAL to them makes the call.

The LPVA Membership Committee is a stock letter/email ready for use; along with membership forms, reply envelope, stationary, and # 10 window envelopes.

PLEDGE PROGRAM COORDINATOR

THE BASICS: Write letters and make follow-up phone calls -- like 20 to 30 a week each -- to members around the state, asking them to join the monthly pledge program.

Job Description

1. Request list of members from Database Manager. You will need to sign our list non-disclosure agreement and send it to LPVA with a buck to make it binding.

2. Compose form letter designed to convince members to join the monthly pledge program.
3. Mail merge form letters to a selection of the LPVA database once a week. Pick out twenty or more names to concentrate upon that week. The actual number you wish to work on should be something you determine. However, since we have roughly 1,000 members and about 48 to 50 practical weeks to contact them all during a year, let's assume that the minimum to be contacted weekly should be 20.
4. Mail the letters for that week.
5. Write up a phone script or some flash cards with notes for your follow-up phone calls. Tell them the truth: monthly income will make us stronger, and we can't succeed without them.
6. Compose your own "Contact Management" form so you can record easily what was said in the conversation -- so that if they promise to join the pledge program and we never see their envelope, we have a reason to send them a follow-up reminder to start making their promised donation.
7. One week later (or guesstimate how long your letters will be taking to get to the addressees...), begin calling each person who was mailed during the previous week.
8. Mail thank-you notes to those who made a commitment; and follow-up letters to remind "iffy" pledgers.
9. MONTHLY: Request list of transactions for the member ID's you have contacted from List Manager. This will show you who have paid up.
10. QUARTERLY: Report to the List Manager. Include copies of the weekly call & mail lists with any scribbled notes on each contact listed thereon. Estimate hours spent on each portion of the task. Pretend you are working on a time clock. [The reason I ask for this is because a lot of times people on the SCC have little idea what each job takes in the way of time. I want the jobs we do documented so that we can make clear what is needed for each task.]

-- INCIDENTAL JOBS --

One of the best ways to build a pledge program is via personal appearances at local meetings. Look at the attendance sheet passed around at each meeting, write the name of each person from the guest sign-in sheet on a pledge card while the group handles other business. Then, once you have all the pledge cards filled out, ask for five minutes of floor time, and read a one to two paragraph speech about why the local members should join the Pledge Program.

Ask one of the local people who knows the other members to distribute the filled-out pledge forms.

This personalizes the process and will raise the acceptance rate.

One thing you must remember when doing this: ask the people to use that pledge form right then and there, and hand it back to you with their donation and pledge. ASK FOR IT. Put them on the spot.

One last thing -- I would really like the volunteer for this position to try to attend all of the meetings of his own local group, and to get to other meetings around the state on an occasional basis.

-- ADDENDA --

1. By law, we are required never to call someone again if they asked to be removed from the phone list. You absolutely MUST send LPVA notice of such requests.
2. Be sure to use the utmost in politeness when contacting our members.

When you are speaking with a potential pledger, NEVER read off their information on the phone; ask them to provide it to YOU. Write it down as they give it to you, and provide the info the way they provided it in your reports to me.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
Washington, DC 20463

June 14, 2004

Kevin McKenna
Treasurer
Libertarian Party of Virginia
2576 Nicky Lane
Alexandria, Virginia 22311

Dear Mr. McKenna:

This refers to your letter dated June 3, 2004, which requests advice concerning application of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), to the possible status of the Libertarian Party of Virginia ("LPVA") as a State party committee of a national political party.

You state that LPVA wishes to qualify as a State committee of the Libertarian Party. As evidence of your possible status, you submit a copy of LPVA's by-laws and a list of Federal party candidates in Virginia for 2000 and 2002. You state that prior to 2002, all minor party congressional candidates in Virginia were identified on the ballot as Independents.

The Act authorizes the Commission to issue an advisory opinion in response to a "complete written request" from any person with respect to a specific transaction or activity by the requesting person. 2 U.S.C. 437f(a). Commission regulations explain that such a request "shall include a complete description of all facts relevant to the specific transaction or activity with respect to which the request is made." 11 CFR 112.1(c).

Your inquiry requires a more complete description of the facts in order to proceed with an advisory opinion. Therefore, please provide the following information:

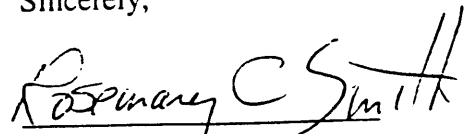

1. With respect to your affiliation with the Libertarian Party, please provide a letter from the Libertarian Party that recognizes LPVA's affiliation with that national organization and recognizes LPVA's claim to State party committee status. In particular, the letter should state the name under which, if any, the Libertarian Party is registered with the Federal Election Commission as a national political party committee, and how long the LPVA has been affiliated with that national organization. In addition, the letter should state whether LPVA is the only organization that the Libertarian Party recognizes in the Commonwealth of Virginia as being responsible for the operation of the Libertarian Party at the State level.

2. As noted above, your request lists Federal party congressional candidates who attained ballot access in Virginia in 2000 and 2002, and were identified on the Virginia ballot as Independents. In the event that the letter from the Libertarian Party states that LPVA was not affiliated with the Libertarian Party in 2000, please provide signed statements from those Federal candidates who qualified as Federal candidates in 2000 and 2002 under 2 U.S.C. 431(2) acknowledging that candidate's affiliation with the LPVA and his or her status as a past or current candidate of the LPVA. All such letters should be provided to you, and you should then submit them to this office.

Upon receipt of your response, this office will give further consideration to your inquiry. If you have any questions about the advisory opinion process, or this letter, please contact Esa L. Sferra, a staff attorney in this office, or Brad C. Deutsch, Assistant General Counsel, at 202-694-1650.

Sincerely,

Rosemary C. Smith
